

WARNING

This page describes the legal terms and conditions which apply to every Internet user visiting the website of ENGIE Cofely, ENGIE Fabricom and ENGIE Axima (hereinafter referred to as "ENGIE Services BeLux") or the website of their subsidiaries and affiliates (hereinafter referred to as the "Websites"). In consulting this site you undertake to comply with these terms and conditions without reservation. We would advise you to consult these terms regularly, as they may be modified from time to time and without warning.

1 - Nature of Information

ENGIE Services BeLux entities and their subsidiaries and affiliates have created the Websites for the personal use of their visitors. ENGIE Services BeLux entities make every effort to ensure that information available on the Websites is accurate and updated and ENGIE Services BeLux entities reserve the right to modify the Websites' contents at any time without prior notice. However, ENGIE Services BeLux entities cannot fully guarantee that any and all such information made available on the Websites is accurate, precise, updated or exhaustive. You assume the entire risk of relying on this information.

Consequently, ENGIE Services BeLux entities may not be held responsible for:

- any imprecision, inaccuracy or omission in the information presented on the Websites;
- any damage resulting from fraudulent intrusion by a third party leading to the modification of the information or materials provided on the Websites;

- generally, any damage, direct or indirect, regardless of its cause, origin, nature or consequences, even in cases where ENGIE Services BeLux entities would have been aware of the foreseeability of such damage, whether such damage results from (i) access to or inability to access the Websites, (ii) use of the Websites, including any damage or virus which may affect your computer system or any other element, and/or (iii) credit given to any information provided directly or indirectly on the Websites.

The information on the Websites and all other sites is provided "as is", without any kind of warranty, whether express or implied. ENGIE Services BeLux entities do not offer any express or implied warranty relative without limitation to their merchantability and fitness for a particular purpose. ENGIE Services BeLux entities categorically reject any interpretation which tends to assimilate the content of the Websites with offers of purchase or incitement to purchase shares or other securities, whether listed or non-listed, of ENGIE Services BeLux entities, or any one of its direct or indirect subsidiaries or affiliate companies.

Member companies of ENGIE Services BeLux entities have their own legal existence and have independent legal personality, but on this site the terms "ENGIE Services BeLux entities", or "we/us", are sometimes used to designate all ENGIE Services BeLux companies or when there is no need to identify a particular company of ENGIE Services BeLux entities.

2 - Intellectual Property

2.1 - Copyright

All information available on the Websites (documents contained on the website and all elements created for the website) are the property of ENGIE Services BeLux entities or its subsidiaries and affiliates and are governed by copyright laws at the time they are made available to the public on the Website. Copies of documents contained on the Websites can only be made for information purposes, and solely for strictly private use. No licence and no right other than the right of website viewing is granted to any person in respect of intellectual property rights.

Reproduction of website documents is authorized solely for informative purposes and for personal, private use: any reproduction and any use of copies made for other purposes is expressly forbidden.

2.2 - Protected Names

Except as otherwise indicated, all corporate names, logos, and Registered® and Trademark™ products mentioned in this site belong to ENGIE Services BeLux entities. They may not be used without the prior written agreement of ENGIE Services BeLux entities.

3 - Nominative and other information

Under Belgian law, you have a right to access, modify, rectify and suppress any personal data upon request

By mail at: Fabricom, Communications Department, Bd Simon Bolivarlaan 34 - 1000 Brussels - BELGIUM

By e-mail: info.fabricom.be@engie.com

The Websites are not intended to receive any confidential information which you may submit.

Consequently, and with the exception of the personal data outlined above, any information (document, data, graphics, questions, suggestions, concepts, remarks or others) which you communicate on the Websites will in no way be deemed confidential. As result, your decision to communicate that information to us entitles us to use, reproduce, post or modify this data, or to transmit it in order to process your request.

4 - Hypertext links

In no event will ENGIE Services Belux entities be responsible for the content of the sites it links to. These links are made available as a service to users of ENGIE Services Belux entities Websites. The decision to activate a link rests with each visitor. Furthermore, it is each visitor's responsibility to take the necessary precautions to prevent the Websites being contaminated, including by any "viruses".

5 - Cautionary Statements Concerning Forward-Looking Statements

The Websites may contain certain statements that are not historical facts and that may constitute forward looking statements, including without limitation, statements that are predications of future events, trends, plans or objectives. Such statements are based on management's current views and assumptions and are subject to important risks and uncertainties that could cause our actual results to differ materially from those expressed or implied in the forward-looking statements (or from past results). Forward-looking statements speak only as of the date on which they were made, and ENGIE Services BeLux entities undertakes no obligation to update or revise any of them, whether as a result of new information, future events or otherwise.
